KCLS Author Voices: Kiku Hughes [recording]

Saturday, May 17, 2-3:30 pm PT

IN-PERSON or VIRTUAL

Join King County Library System and Densho at the Bellevue Library (or virtually!) for a conversation with Kiku Hughes, author of Displacement. Get an insight on the historical and personal impact that the WWII Japanese American incarceration camps have had, and the intergenerational issues they've left behind.

Watch the recording at:

I watched the original webinar back in May and I finally got around to reading my digital version of the graphic novel displacement. As the author acknowledges, the time travel structure is inspired by Octavia Butler. I thought it is one of the better fictionalized accounts of life in the camps.

Where I went the past weeks and may have heard of at the last minute (and before, since webinars are often still available online):

Feeling cheap so I skipped the big ticket events and went to a couple of free ones that were new to me:

On Saturday I went to the Rancho Cucamonga Lunar New Year Festival. Nice event. My photos at:

<http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/RCLunar2026/index.html>

and then on Sunday I went to the LA Central Library where they had a small belated Japanese New Year event:

<http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/LALibrary2026/index.html>

Also gave myself a little tour of the library.

Previously:

I made it to the belated JANM shogatsu celebration at the JACCC courtyard. A much welcomed collaboration made for a better venue and experience. Instead of the rain on the real Jan 1, we had a beautiful sunny day. Also took in the ikebana display; very convenient. My photos at:

<http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/Shogatsu2026/index.html>

I cut it short so I could zoom down to Torrance for their Lunar New Year Festival, in this case very early. I caught the tail end but did get to see and hear (in spite of a generator running very loudly) the youth orchestra. In a future without scheduling conflicts, I would like to experience more of it.

<http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/TorranceLunar2026/index.html>

Happy New Year!

I used the rain as an excuse to catch up with my reading.
